

Name:

1. Where does the man usually work? What is his hobby?
2. What does the story about the baby porpoise tell us about the man?
3. What does the man think of the two swirls in the water about eight feet apart?
4. What does the man see when he closes his eyes under the water?
5. After the porpoise slaps the ray, the man has one last chance. What is his first impulse?
6. After the man is free, what does he see overhead?